Description	Description: the RICOH Pro L4160 uses the powerful Ricoh Software RIP designed specifically to simplify printing graphics-rich output. The intuitive, icon-based interface lets you seamlessly check settings and progress from the main screen. With innovative high-speed print heads, the RICOH Pro L4160 delivers high-quality output time after time. Each of the two Piezo print heads are configured with 1.280 nozzles per head to ensure the outstanding results, as a precise drop is dispensed at the exact location — every time. The RICOH Pro L4160 uses aqueous durable latex ink to produce exceptional wide format color.
